

© Zahra Shakeri, Dalla Lana School of Public Health, University of Toronto

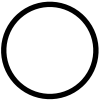

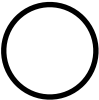

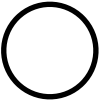

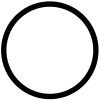

Player 1 rolls a dice to decide the first move.

Moving our checker diagonally to an empty adjacent space.

Only your own checker pieces are eligible for moving & Move precisely one space diagonally.

dump over your opponent's checker, landing in an empty space just behind it.

Check for more jumping opportunities to continue your turn, allowing consecutive jumps.

After jumping over your opponent's checker, their piece is removed from the board.

After your turn, your opponent takes their turn following the same rule.

Players alternate turns.

After the first game, the winner of the previous game typically goes first in subsequent games.

precisely and equally.

Only your own checks are being & Moving

Check for more jumping opportunities to continue your turn, allowing consecutive jumps.

remembered for the good.

After juggling over your parent's checker, their piece is

After the first game, the winner of the previous game typically goes first in subsequent games.

